Artist Bio

Angela, a talented artist from Pittsburgh, PA, currently residing in Atlanta, GA. Her artistic journey began at the young age of 7, kindling a passion for drawing that ignited her creative spirit. At 9, she discovered the captivating world of charcoal art, and it quickly became her love.

After graduating as a graphic designer from the Arts Institute of Pittsburgh, Angela took a career-focused break from her craft. However, later in life, she rekindled her true calling and devoted herself to art full-time, driven by an unwavering passion.

Drawing inspiration from the world around us, Angela finds beauty in feminine existence, natural emotions, and life's experiences. Her artistry knows no bounds, ranging from captivating black canvas creations with charcoal to mesmerizing acrylic paintings and resin pour art.

Angela's ultimate goal is to share her art with the world, connecting with others through relatable feelings and experiences. Her stunning masterpieces aim to evoke emotions and leave a profound impact on those who encounter her work. Through her art, Angela invites viewers on a visual journey to explore the depths of human emotions and the wonders of existence.
